Bye-laws 2 of the Bye-laws under Sec 48(2) (page 11 of the printed draft-bye-laws) runs as follows. —

"No person shall deposit in any one day more than one head-load of rubbish in any municipal bin"

It is indeed remarkable how the Municipal Council considered it fit to propose such a provision

In the first place, the wording is defective the following questions arise in this Connection. —

(1) Is a head load allowed to be deposited by each person in a family or only one head load is allowed for in the case of each family?

(2) Is it practicable to deposit 2 or 3 head loads, provided that not more than one head load is deposited in any one bin?

(3) What is the quantity allowed for a head load?

(4) Whether in the rubbish to be deposited by families in which there is more than one head load

It is the duty of the Municipal Council to provide for the disposal of a 9 Tele remembered with reference to the 2nd Member's orders. para 6 supra

The Munb Commr does not seem to have power to frame bye-laws in either of the two cases referred to

As regards obstructions caused to traffic on public streets by funerals ordinarily necessary action will have perhaps to be undertaken by the Police under Sec 50 Clause (a) of the Police Regn.

See the last section of the Police Act. It does not apply to Municipal areas

With reference to the other point viz enclosing burial and cremation grounds the Munb. Commrs may be asked to undertake the work soon, as funds permit, in respect of Munb grounds It is doubtful if persons not in control of private burial and burning grounds can be compelled to undertake the work under the Munb. Regn There is besides a difficult question about the height of the wall Most of the burial and cremation grounds belong to the Municipality &c. if approved, the Munb. Commrs of Mysore may be asked to carry out the necessary work

In my opinion, by-laws can well be made under Sec 48 (1) (h) of the Municipal Regulation for the purpose of enclosing burning & burial grounds.

(1) I do not think by-laws can be framed under the Municipal Regulation for the prevention of cycling practice on municipal roads cl (w) Sub-sec (1) of Sec 48 can be resorted to only for the regulation of such matters as are specified or indicated in other portions of the Municipal Regulation & not for regulating matters in respect of which the Municipal Law is wholly silent - § 54 (c) relates to the cleansing of public streets & not to the regulation of traffic

(2) § 48 (1) (v) provides for controlling unwieldy traffic of the bye-laws framed under Sec 40(xv), the provisions enabling the Confiscation of Materials and trappings are ultra vires and are therefore deleted.

2) In rule 20 of the rules framed under Sec 46 (a) the words "on application to the President" seems unnecessary. Also, Bye-law No 2 of the bye-laws framed under Sec 40-(xv) may, it is feared, be felt to hardship by the public. The Municipal Council may take further necessary action if considered desirable is open to serious objection and is moreover quite unworkable is also therefore delete

Sir,

It has been noticed by Govt. that some of the burning and burial grounds in the Mysore City happen to be on the main roads [illegible] present a ghastly sight to way-farers. It is therefore very necessary

Mind these grounds should be walled in so as to prevent ~~cattle~~ Keep such sights out of public view and also to guard against encroachment on the adjoining land or road.
I am therefore to suggest the desirability of the Dumb.
Council framing necessary bye laws in this respect besides taking needful action in respect of Dumb. burning & burial grounds
